The Movement that will not move, can't win, doesn't try.

Hello folks how y'all doing today? Well folks it seems that the far right, the Internet right, the neo-nutzi write-off kooky right, has decided that your humble narrator, is simply too dangerous to speak to the proles even while being censored. They are in this regard taking after their birth mother which is modernity. Most of their 'message boards' have banned me -- like seriously that is like getting kicked out of a crack house -- really a step up.

But be that as it may this action of theirs places us among many many other rational sane people that the play acting costume movement has driven out because we will not play their Live Action Roll Playing as they attempt to conflate modern Whites needs with WWII, the NSDAP, or the Eternal Screw!

We, the dissidents they have rejected, have this irritating habit of not accepting idiotic statements as fact and requiring sound logical answers. We the stand up folks who are silenced by both the Right and Left, have this terrible affliction of actually caring about Our Own People, first and foremost above our ego and on line image.

We oddly can manage do this without needing to hate others since we are animated by Love for our Kind, our Home, Our History and Our Living People – though members of the people will try our patience at times. Our concern comes from the natural concern one feels for his family and home, not from a need to be part of an on line play acting troop. Thus, We the solid, humble real sons of the soil, really irritate the play actors because caring about our people We expect results from the movement that are beneficial to our peoples best ends.

Here-in lies the error. In expecting positive real world results from a Movement that primarily consists of FBI sting operations like Stromfront, VNNF, White Nations Now, the Creativity Movement, KKK, and the National Socialist Movement, one is setting one self up for failure as failure is inherent in their internal logic and actions such as they occur in physical space-time.

The Movement as a whole exists to blame, not to reclaim. It is a gathering of rejected and down trodden people, many of whom are in fact, by and large devoid of love for True Western Traditional Ways – being ignorant of the past – and who are more realistically animated by mere opposition to outsiders. The movement is in effect their two minutes hate and is nothing more than an emotional display meant to keep them docile in the face of ever increasing real world outrages against the traditions and values of the Old West.

The tragedy is that these supposed nationalists having no understanding of White Traditional Values, also have no contact or connection to actual white folks – by and large they are urban and suburbanites who have awoken in the modern world and found they are not part of the PC urban world but who tragically lack connection to the White close community's of that lay outside the cities and diverse suburbs.

This they tend as a group to overcome by retreating into a world of imagination in groups online, from which they kvetch about how it will be once magic fairy dust brings them to victory over the enemy.

Their womanly method of complaining about the enemy discredits the entire nationalist movement and their lack of solid ideals and goals make any solid complaints they have seem to be merely emotional acting out. What good ideals are present are swamped in a flood of nonsense and conflicting useless information which does nothing to provide a means to useful action or to finding positive forward looking solutions. The bad drowns the good in its cradle.

This is a disgrace to us all since these groups are the public face of nationalism. Daily on line they shame us all by their going on and idiotic attempts to use names as weapons.

However the true comedy, really begins when the media sets up this narrative about us nationalists being toothless, evil, stupid, dark, dismal and kvetching kooks, and without fail just after the narrator stops, the Movement clowns complete with costumes and props come out on the stage at cue to fill out the picture in the mind's eye of the idiot villain who has no other use but to act as a boogey; this doubly turns the public away from the core message of majority self determination, and makes our work twice hard. All to feed the ego of fools set up to be failures.

Then with unabashed insolence and not just a dose of delusion, the movement stage extras habitually double down and go on to pretend as if they are high lords and ladies of some mythical Aryan court – since we all know that Lords simply whimper rather than act – to act as if they are IN fact what the media and race hustlers on the left pretend them to be in jest i.e. leaders among the White Majority. And just as habitually the media and pals are right there to ensure this pathetic after defeat display of utter delusion, puts the maximal egg upon the face of real world meat and potato Nationalists.

The message the Media puts out, and which the Nationalist leadership denies with all force:

The emperor has NO clothes just the same as the White Nationalist Movement has NO Nation!

The Movement parade about naked, attempting to force all to kowtow to the splendor that is their great imagined authority among the masses! They truly believe the lies feed to them by the PC establishment about their own popular support among the White mass of citizens. When in fact most people don't think about them except to revile their whining and inactive way of 'fighting' for the Majority.

And yet here they are day after day lining up to pay their part of the 90k a year to keep the Circus tent up and the music going!

Merrily hiding from reality behind a server and firewall, like fools, and with a will that facts simply cannot temper, they believe that they can censor their way to being the truth, so they think that IF they make all say that A is B that B will become A by group assent.

They believe that because they've paid money they can be rude to people like myself and yourselves, because they believe that they are superior to us. This belief is false in its totality. They then extend this belief to include the notion that ALL persons who won't spend money to be a fool on a stage set by the enemy who uses the foolish as whipping boys, as 'sheep' and 'weak' while the play actors and strong are the 'lords and ladies' of creation.

Now of course the true facts of reality, simple do not accord with these fantasy notions about the Movement being a superior group of great supermen ... And thus the Bannings, Deletions, and Censorship needed to keep appearances up enough to keep the money rolling in the front of Mammons maw.

The Internet movement called White Nationalism in effect only exists, because it can ban and censor people, who like ourselves have had the temerity to question its phoney and empty set of promises and solutions to IRL problems faced by working and middle class Whites across the West. IRL it has NO presence what so ever, and is a cypher. The Boy Scouts have more potential to effect meaningful changes that benefit our kind – and they are overran with Sodomites folks!

The Movement Few, those select and totally superior few, act like liberals, or Bolsheviks because like these two groups the movement's self selected elite believes they are a self chosen set of betters who have every Right to simply use us common folks like the cattle which we in fact are to them – thus we have Nationalists who hate and despise the common rural whites every bit as much as any Hollywood liberal or New York Socialite.

They tend over all to view the common Whites as Spoils to be picked and ruled over, not brethren to be assisted and uplifted! Thus again they have much more than they will admit in common with the old left and other elitist movement's than to any form of Real Nationalism which has ever existed.

The movement is in fact the mirror image of the political correctness from which it was spawned; both, believe that they can silence reality by excluding data and cherry picking information. And both are totally deluded, and live in an artificial stunted reality because of it.

Now to be fair if if PC had attempted to censor us, we would take this in stride as enemies do as enemies do. It is always a mark of pride when an enemy has a go at one.

However when it is our own side, nominally who are on this side of center in the quest to save our majority dominance and our kind from extinction, one looks at this a bit more critically.

In point of fact one is inclined to view being censored by one's own side, as a betrayal and a subversion of the people's best good. As well as being a personal insult.

Particularly when one's fault lies merely in questioning how talking about others peoples besides our own can in any way help our own organize against those others. How can whining about A help B do anything for B?

Can anyone answer this? How does fixating on others help us organize our own?

It seems the sort of Brass tacks questions are absolutely unwelcome. We find that white nationalism is almost as negative towards questions about white people and their interests as liberals are when you get into it.

When one asks questions about white working people in particular, white nationalism is certain to condemn one as a communist or socialist.

As if only communist and socialists would have ever been loyal to the working class. When one mentions living wages, good terms of employment, good solid middle class jobs and benefits, the environment, or anything that gets in the way of obsessing about a certain tribe of usurious lenders, one is sure to bring down their wrath, such that unless one is quite careful with ones words, one is sure to be labeled a Jew and banned.

Particularly those that want to do more than donate money to the 90k dollar a year website or give to the perpetual 'runs' of the movements Professional PhD Politician!

Why we wonder does white nationalism respond to questions about the welfare of white people with the same hostility as PC liberal modernity?

We have pondered this for a longtime noting the phenomenon, noting how most white nationalist believe that they are some form of elite and that other whites are merely sheep and cattle, and we have concluded that like white liberals, white nationalists believe their superior to regular run the mill fly over whites.

The white nationalists crowd in effect are as I said previously in effect a doppelganger to liberalism's white guilt, being whites who looked down on all other whites in the same way that liberals secretly looked down on colored people.

Folks we view this as inadequate and as unsatisfactory, that out this late hour our people should have such a useless and terminally ignorant excuse for a nationalist movement since all the objective conditions exist for a strong viable mass movement based on the historical traditions of the majority.

We see that this highhanded in arrogant attitude must and will ensure continual failure.

And because we the outcasts who are the true standard bearers of Nationalism love our people, we see that this white nationalist stranglehold on the label, on the title of nationalism, must be broken. Their idiotic concepts must be pursued from the real righto-sphere, and mercilessly mocked into the dustbin of history where they can no longer assist in the displacement of our people in the West.

The hold on the label by these faux nationalist posers, must be broken by those of us who care about our kind, going to these web forums where they congregate, and confronting them openly, with their failures, fears and other general frailties. Question them to their face and make them choke.

Press them hard to the hot iron that is their failure to serve the folk adequately.

The rank and file must be made to understand that THOSE so called 'leaders' are in fact Pipe Pipers and NOT true leader's to our kind at all. They are truly simple carinval barkers.

They must see the leadership shirk and avoid every meaningful question about the real lives of White People and dive right into nonsense about eternal conspiracies and other kookish nonsense, rather than formulate meaningful plans to counter the real world based information we will hammer them with day and night without any let up, ever, until all of their nonsense is ground into the dust.

We must take every opportunity to question their motives, what means they intend to use, and what ends they seek to achieve, along with relentlessly making them JUSTIFY their rank and station among our kind. Leaders Lead, and Rulers Rule – to the best ends of those they lead and rule!

We must question their rosy premises and monocausal solution sets, and demand from them real answers that can work in the here and now, to the best ends of our People. Again the key is force them to produce or run them out of the path.

We must without mercy demand that they produce real world results or step down so as to make room for fresh ideas and bodies. No pity as this is NOT a gentleman's game – this is our survival as a unique Western People we are talking about here.

We must learn to sustain ourselves in the face of less than immediate rewards and to maintain discipline among ourselves. This in itself will place us infinite squares above the present disorder.

Effectively those of us on the true Nationalist right must be as motivated and just as committed to our cause as those on the left were before they came into power.

We must not accept false front phony nationalists who are in fact Judas goats any other name, as leaders. And we must not accept organizations which are empty shells meant to march us in circles as legitimate organs of nationalism!

The idea is to be so tight on these false nationalists, these phoney fronts, that EVERYWHERE they turn they see only Us – even when by chance we do not happen to be there!

We all owe our people, this duty to protect them from these false prophets, as we are unlike these false nationalists shepherds to our people and brothers to our kin.

We own loyalty first and foremost to Our Kin not to any false fronts or empty set of promises.

We have no rightful loyalty, to the so called (bowel) movement, which falsely purports to leads our nation, which views our nation in the same light that PC does, and which is useless to our national best interests long term. They are not loyal people, so they deserve NO loyal treatment.

On the other hand, we have ever every proper dutiful loyalty to our nation, which is the family from which we were born, and to whom our first, our last, and our every just duty are owed.

The leaders of the Nationalist faction must be men who have no loyalty other than loyalty to the nation, to the people, to the homes, hearths and heritage of the families that make up the nation.

Anyone loyal to Mammon is NOT fit to lead Nationalists in their quest to be free of Mammon and his servants. Mammon and the idols of the market are FULL STOP the enemies of the National Interest. Those who side with them are Judases and have NO place among the leaders of our kind.

We have, to be clear, no personal ambition. We see no promotion in our future, we are driven though, to do all in our powers even if we must do it alone to ensure that this pseudo nationalism goes into the trash, so that from the rubble may arise a more broad based, realistic, virile, social, economic, and political movement which will better organize white people to survive as a nation.

With that we appeal to all loyal scions of the soil, to join with us in piggybacking, the current failure, such that we may climb our way to success.

The fundamental principles behind our success will be two. One, we won't blame, we claim, and then we re-frame. We are responsible for Us, and We alone! We will see what is to be done, and claim responsibility for getting it done right.

And two, we talk only until we have decided on how to act, then we act in the community, come back compare notes, talk to refine actions, and go back again to action in the community.

Our Actions are Ours.

We shall act to the best of our ability to the best interests of the community of families which make the world in which we exist, the air we breath and the sustenance of our bodily persons.

These we shall act to serve, not some abstract outside ourselves but the living people who are part of our Nation.

Given this much:

We must demand any nationalist movement, stop attempting to ape the NSDAP, stop trying to relive world war two, stop trying to win in court at Nuremberg, and actually focus on the real world problems of working and middle class whites in the here and now.

We must demand that our organizations and leaders be above personal reproach and that they have exactly one loyalty.

We must demand any movement that bears the title of Nationalist, first and foremost be about the welfare of the white nation in which it operates ahead of anything else.

We must demand that any movement that calls itself nationalist have some form of concerted plan, or real world policy for reaching real world whites, and organizing them around their social and economic advantage, such that they can politically defend themselves, from PC, diversity, and mass immigration.

And we must demand that any organization or grouping that does not meet these minimal demands be prevented by all means from funding itself, from communicating its false messages, and from having meaningful contact with the media or academia.

That is what We demand from Nationalism.

Therefore brothers we ask you, to join us, in in conducting – Operation Chastisement –

The purpose of which, shall be to topple and denounce, defund and de-throne all of the false leaders and prophets among the our kind, so as to rightfully mock their idiotic conceptions of reality as the prelude, to replacing those false symbols and icons with ones that have much more substance.

The old false way must perish so that the new better correct way can be ascendent.

The first shall be the online forums which are a toxic disgrace to the White Race, particularly Stormfront and VNNF, which are both running sores on the Nationalists movement's rear end.

the #EthnoNationalist has beliefs much closer to the average member of the class called the 'Founders' in America. Yes they were 'racists', AND a better form of life than the PC equality punks that try to poo poo or lie about them. So cuck-a-tards, time to go to woodshed. Good Thrashing Coming Up. Tanned Backside. Over the Hill and through the Brush ... Oh yeah. We ramble like a champ.

About Family Community and Nation --
What is a People?

Now folks, there is a lot of confusion rolling around the minds of Americans. This is because they are never taken to basics by the media and education being always simply indoctrinated with empty slogan words.

Nostalgia is taken as 'historical fact' and that is that. But this will not do. It is unacceptable. Better, more soundly based thinking is required.

First and Foremost:

There is NO such thing as a 'people' by agreement – that is based upon the wrongheaded idea that ANY living person has ever existed for second as an individual – as this atomic man is needed for Locke, Mills, or Liberalism's arguments to make any sense at all.

Therefore the whole of Liberalism's arguments are false being based upon an atomic individual that can never exist.

All right thinking about societies assumes at a minimum the Father-Mother-Child breeding group as its 'quantum' or smallest unit. Since the simple fact is No family, NO society, NO individuals at all. All individuals come from the mixing of TWO other prior individuals of exactly the Male and Female sexes and NO other combinations.

Therefore all persons in society come from a breeding pair of Male and Female and this Male-Female-Child group is the PRIMARY unit of society, being the block that ensures the continuation of the kind. The family often finds it needs other closely related families which make an extended family. Extended Families band together into tribes, tribes ... but without the MALE-Female bonding pair, who create new members of the kind, there is NONE of this, and in fact pure individuals would only exist for at most ONE generation.

What is a People?

A People is a given group of ethnically similar persons that live in a given land mass, have common customs, history, aspirations

Antifa take 'victory lap' in Stone Mountain
| Whites are occupied

So Antifa have taken the final step to becoming full blown revolutionaries. Armed partols in an American Town by Leftists. Yeah.

So yeah Red State Folks -- Antifa says your town is 'their streets'. FYI. City, town all the same --

Communists do not allow dissent at all. #antifa are dangerous -- Go watch the news video and let me know if I am shirl -- -- Now is Antifa the new occupation or what?? Using firearms to impose on free people for imagined crimes, using the language of Marxist Leninism, is that 'real liberty'? Maximal Freedom comes from Maoists eh? Socialist Utopia is at hand -- and other things that never happen.

The #GOP are useless as they bow to #MLK without question. And since only 'racists' oppose Antifa, well you know the story.

The Ray of Hope is that the Red Guards here get so crazy they provoke reaction on a continent wide scale.

Time for Whites across the Anglo world to control our own communications and narrative. We cannot afford at this late hour to have subversive culture destroyers having silenced and throttled. The Lesson of the Netz is Never Let the Enemy Control The Mean of Communications. Never Do this my My Son, Never Be Censored willingly.

We have a Live ONE ...

The Western world is chalk full of stupid morons that can't deal with reality. Today I laugh at lough at just such a low IQ imbecile. This moron thinks I should Live Action Roll Play the Turner Diaries .. WHY Larp a Joke BOOK that is not a functional model? The movement needs to up its game. Time TO FIND Better models. Time to FOUND a REAL MOVEMENT that has application in the real world.

With that:

Remember that all day every day equality is a lie. Our Nation first and only --- Since no border no real country or nation or identity -- false BS about humanity is a lie.

Communism crushes the Soul | Never Doubt Quans are poor learners

The USA is utterly under Marxist domination. We are right the step before -- mass liquidation of the class enemies begins.

How did we get here? Internal Subversion during the early 20's to about 50's of serious communists.

When you go up against Communism recall --

Communist United Popular Fronts cannot be stopped unless the Cadres are killed or negated a politically viable entity, nothing but cutting off the population from the influence of the cadres will ensure the para-military has in effect run about randomly conducting violence mindless tyrant. Small action military defeats will not usually undo them, but lack of supply and leadership will.

For Good Friday!

Our enemy is good at hiding his dais and antechamber.

He puts many a figure before him as a distraction to others and a shield for himself. He uses Priest, Poet,

Politician, and Praetorian as a cover and blanket behind which to conduct his foul alchemy of making money from nothing, and controlling destinies based upon a false claim to creation of wealth.

They are there in plain sight. There before you sits the dark lord and his servants triumphant over you and your nation. Milking your wealth and strength to his own ends and to our ruin. There he is right there, in front of you. He is your taxes to live in your own home. Your restrictions upon travel. Your burdens that authority puts wrongly upon you, while taking for the beast, that is right that.

And yet the trees of the modern media world and the exigencies of the modern mode of survival blur mask and distort their true presence to all but those that can see--truly see, the second sight-- that one rotten tree; the tree of the other trees' genesis. The root of the matter going back into the abyss and into times long forgotten of man. You must clear the forest from the minds eye.

You must calm the emotions and feeling of being hurried along by 'fate' or 'destiny'. You must conquer your own self, and then you will be able to concentrate your mind so as to say:

I see you my enemy since time began.

I see you my foe since all time.

I see you destroyer of my kind.

I see you, NOW see me serpent, dark hateful dragon.

See the light that I bring.

See the might and majesty of the Lord on High, who I am a servant there of.

See your doom in my sight. See yourself brought to ruin, you and your foul servants of the pit.

See your lie stricken by Truth,

See yourself beast of perdition cast into hell by the Angles of God, lord of battle hosts, by thier very Righteous Wrath.

See your kingdom of sand fall, fallen one.

See your hordes feasted upon by crows, and carrion eaters.

See my lord and my kind victorious over thee.

See you and yours banished to death eternal with great howling and wailing.

See Christ Victorious! See Christ Eternal! See Christ Triumphant over evil and death!

With me my Brethren day and night until our minds have brought the energy together to destroy our enemies. It is in our minds that our victory is to be won. The Light is the our strength the inner light, that comes from seeing without seeing. Those that can must, and those that cannot...well they are what normal worship type religions are designed to chatter to and thus they help as well, as the wave of will and concentrated energy is built and pushed and built and pushed. But the Priesthood that will fight the spiritual battle is a sine non qua of the victory over our foes. The rallies and marches are merely the material base expression of the energies that need to be put into making them real. I can not do this alone, but as a group we can do this. And until they outlaw wishing for your tyrant to be cast down: It is legal. Even people that do not believe are believed in by my Lord, and thus as long as you say the 'prayer' with intent and mean for it to become true, your belief is not a relevant factor. My Lord is not hobbled by such a petty thing as human disbelief, as after all it is only the human that suffers for the disbelief.

Book reading list | and a thousand other insanities.

(The Recording is old but every Sunday is Sunday which is the name of the file. 100%.)

What do we propose we do? We I suggest a deeper knowledge of the Past. Along those lines, we suggest several readings. Plutarch, Livy, Brooks Adams, Virgil, Plato, Aristotle and Arthur Pentty among others -- and yes you will need to learn to cobble information as some of the above conflicts. Why? The more you know the ammo your mind has in any given situation -- thoughts, ideas and dreams are ammo of the mind. Weak mind = Weak Will to fight.

Just a side tale not in the video -- Publius Decius Mus did not go into the enemies ranks for 2% interest gains or a tax break -- No He was Consul and his army was losing, so he charged into the enemy ranks after dedicating himself to the infernal gods -- he gave himself as a sacrifice to victory -- the MEN had to have his body to return in honor. And so they won. -- Read Livy and you will know.

We also suggest that the above books can be used in the old way to increase the level of learning among general commons and children in particular.

Tyranny is about keeping people weak, servile and stupid. Learn about your people and have strength in that knowledge AND get a better education for far less suffering -- Modern PC schools are like prisons. Sharp Mind -- Sound Will.

Deplatforming is a form political warfare

Deplatforming is a form political warfare. In short the leftists in media, academia, government and in Blue State USA want in every way to use the Power they have over the Tech Companies/Internet-Infrastructure to have their way over the Right. By any means necessary – After all everybody to the Right of Stalin is Hitler yeah? – and this is their excuse for why they have the MORAL DUTY to nanny, jail, harass and otherwise cause us who dissent from the PC world paradigm to be second class citizens. And who but the Second Class are keep from speaking and voting as they wish? Hey?

Surely the idea they Looney Left has in mind must be to STYMIE Nationalists, Populists, and Conservatives too, ability to organize and effect our ideas into public policy! IE to make and keep us as SECOND CLASS CITIZENS. Or what the Romans called Citizens without Suffrage – and if you can VOTE OR DEBATE on the subjects that appeal to you are you FREE? Do you have rights?

Well never the less the Left and Tech Companies have taken themselves the 'right' to keep us pell-melled, weak and divided. To keep us from speaking. To keep us in LINE. To keep us as their slaves. Since they even seek to disarm us as they silence us!

The key to any good coup or overthrow is to the silence the opposition while you smear, malign and otherwise defame them without contrary comment or by bringing forward punching bag fake 'right' sacrificial lambs.

You know those weak knee Rhino types that are 'what you say dear' to every SINGLE DEMAND the left makes? They are so weak so to inspire the enemy to new confidence. And they have enabled the Left to get this powerful by their weakness. You know those whores who take the SAME PAC MONEY as the Dems and who suck up to the SAME cosmopolitan one world, one humanity, anti-empirical drivel as the Communists? Those guys?

Oh sure the Parties do their best to hide these blatantly politically motivated dirty vile foul underhanded low acts behind 'good intentions' about Hate and Violence, on the Left Side and 'Principles and Values' on the Right --but that is all a lie.

They are ,Each and BOTH, cheats and bandits. Two Wolves of a different coat. Thieves and Liars! Master and Man, Man and Master. The GOP might as well be the Democratic party for all their timid surrenders to the demands of the Left over the years. They too only seek POWER – Power pretending to be the party of the Common Historical People. Thus Mutually the Unitary, Media and Talking Head Class seeks the Power to be the ONLY Publicly allowed voices. Power to shape the MIND of the average consumer in this New America! The Power to be the ONLY TRUTH! See: Social Media's conservative/populist/nationalist purges.

The Left can't even allow us ONE single place to have a good time that they don't try to bring down regular like. See: Gab or even 4Chan for that matter. Yeah? Fucking Communist Control Freaks. They don't get it at all. They are clueless as the Communist in the USSR were days before it all came down! Same ASSHOLES different Feces!

#BuildTheWall Has Failed | America is Broken Arrow

#BuildTheWall has failed. There are 1200-1500 people PER WEEK over running our border that are CAUGHT. We are building tent cities at 37 million dollars in cost to ourselves. We are being took like suckers. Mexico, Leftists and the PC-Democrats are enabling the invasion from central America. It is time to secure our border so we can keep these Invaders and Communists at bay. Only infiltrators sneak into a nation that will give you asylum. These invaders sneak around like NVA crossing the Demilitarized zone during the Vietnam Conflict. Yeah they are infiltrators invading El Norte, IE they seek to Undermine the USA, but it should be noted they are enabled by ZIONISTS and EMPLOYERS here in the USA and the Blancos in Mexico. But more than anything this is CAUSED by ALLOWING the MLK bunch to riot in the '60-'70s, which was caused by COWARDICE among LEO and Politicians. We have arrived at the Camp of the Saints by stages, but arrived we have. Aztlan means Less WHITE and more Brown Invaders.

A Nationalist Dream of Tomorrow

A Nationalist Dream of Tomorrow

It occurs to me that the West has been so striped of industry that the normal rule about change in the industrial sector having profound effects upon the workers lives slash greater economy is no longer true as there are a lot fewer industrial workers these days inside the national borders. Fewer Jobs means Less Chaos caused by clean breaks from the past.

This low wage labor on demand era is a terrible bane to our people, as it keeps us bound to the third world cheap labor, puts the sexes at war for jobs, and divides the natural organic nation for the sake of greed, as well as creating an gap between our rich and poor who are seen are replaceable and expendable. However, I am sure that it can also be a powerful boon as it provides motivation to rebuild a higher wage stable employment situation like the '35-'70 time frame was for our fathers and grandfathers.

If the Right Leadership -- leadership that rejected 'free trade' and the 'world market' in favor of our Nation; leadership that was free of 'public opinion'; leadership with a long term willful purpose -- was to be in power, this status can be used to the good if one realizes that with far less entrenched workers lives and/or special interests to disrupt and with such massive under tapped manpower potential that there really is no wrong way to go. A blank slate allows all things.

For the Record -- Robotics in the absence of a guaranteed living wage is not acceptable ... NO JOBS = NO WAGES = NO FAMILIES PRODUCING WHITE CHILDREN. Robotics is Death Cult at its pentacle. This means LIVING JOBS for MEN so they can be bread winners. It also means women in the home being a MOTHER and home keeper for the families as nature intended.

No Feminism/Sodomite nonsense about 'gender',equality, or choice will be acceptable -- we want FULL ADULT MALE EMPLOYMENT, nearly Universal Marriage, an end to any legally allowed Divorce and maximum live births per breeding pair over time without any birth control being used to SUBVERT nature's life affirming processes. This means good wages, benefits and stability in the home, as well as stable families that work and stay together to ensure they have the means to care for themselves.

Ending the free birth control to White women, while forbidding ALL divorce and encouraging as close as possible to universal marriage, would be the #1 thing to ensure MORE WHITE BIRTHS per capita if they are ONLY allowed WHITE MEN as husbands. Marry them YOUNG keep the BIRTHS COMING. FEMALES exist biologically to ensure LIVING BIRTHS among our kind. That is their #1 job, highest and only functional purpose in nature. Feminism's death cult mentality among modern 'free women' will be PUT DOWN.

White Knights -- who are almost entirely SODOMITES trying to enable feminism for their own ends -- will submit to LIFE or be shipped to Far North for forced labor ... Neither Suffrage nor Sodomy shall endure into Ethno State -- both are unnatural side effects of Death Cult. We shall sweat them out.

To set aside the 'we can't do this' Because? Muh Markets! Make Me Laugh ... Markets are Nothing but Human Choices in Aggregate. Nothing. As to 'muh liberty' ... What is liberty FOR if not for the GOOD of the COMMONS? Thus by doing this we are becoming the Market and ensuring our mutual liberty as persons and as a whole. Or perhaps the feminists harpies and Sodomites will 'rebel' ... that is nothing that BETS and Backhands cannot put down in short order.

So with that in mind. Lets talk Shop -- Dream the Dream upon the Qua ... The Murri-Qua.

We are again highly De-industrialized but not to the point that if the major industries were rationalized in their operations and coordinated -- not confiscated or controlled but coordinated -- by a national entity made up of experts in the fields at hand not party hacks, who directed what remained to concentrate upon making the tools necessary to remake/rebuild/retool our industrial infrastructure; there is no material reason we could not work our way back to full employment and a more ideal balance of employment agriculture/manufactures/service sectors; thus putting loyal citizens to work at good pay at manufactures so that they can buy products made by other citizens in the ag and service sectors.

We have coal and petroleum reserves to be exploited, to say nothing of the VAST geothermal, tidal, hydro, and nuclear stocks at hand. We will have the energy needed to maintain a modern standard of living, and ensure that said green tech has the raw materials to produce the products needed for the life of our people and for trade secondarily. This will ensure that our more insular world has the materials needed to maintain an array of industries and skills.

We have enough military stocks to resist any invasion. And to ensure our liberty among the nations.

We have the man power to make any thing from pyramids to placing a man on the moon possible.

Therefore it seems that as long as our willful rebuild is:
1. profitable to the general good. Not equally profitable to everyone, but which generally will tend to provide the economic basis for a wise society of unified people to have a decent standard of living -- which is surely a general good.

2.puts the maximum number of people to work for a living wage/benefit package/retirement such that we can have stable family homes upon a single pay check. This gives a sense of purpose to both the bread winner and home keeper as well as giving the children a more stable home life. this too is to the general good as it ensures both more and better socialized children to carry the torch into the future.

3.Makes a product that replaces an import or even better is of such a kind that it can do that and be exported itself. Less service, more light industry, even more heavy industry. This way we can break our dependence upon the Chinese and other sweatshop nations. And to at a blow we make our selves depend upon ourselves.

4. depends as much as possible 100% upon domestic inputs, resources and labor and is reasonably clean, green and non-destructive on the general environment.

All out sourcing will be to other kindred ethnics first and foremost. As to the green part ... who wants to live next to a coal mining operation? Okay then. Nuff said. Also Nationalism is the only truly right wing movement that seeks to preserve the living environment for more than its mere economic value.

5. is long term sustainable and which there for allows for long term domestic resource management on both a private and public level.

That we as a national whole can have a real chance at making a go of rebuilding. However for that to succeed to our mind several secondary policies will have to be pushed through either slightly ahead or at the same time as Project Willful ReBuild

Those policies should include --

1. Institute a Public Bank. No excuse to dethrone Usury to the Common Good is a bad excuse after all.

A.) No more paying for our own labor to be loaned back to us. Issue our money as a function of our national worth. Measure our money by the GDP of our products.

B.) One National Not For Profit Bank; Fifty State Not for Profit Banks, County Level Credit Unions to act as the base. This and NOT a commercial banking cartel would be the basis for our new national banking system. The current banking financial elite will be held under house arrest lest they flee and foment revolution against us.

C.) Dissolve Federal Reserve -- Declare its 'debts' of about 11 trillion claimed to be forfeit to the new bank, as well as declaring that the petro-dollar will not longer be maintained -- IE those foreign dollars will largely become worthless except the other ANGLO Nations, the EU and partially Russia, Japan, India and S Korea. China will be dropped hard. This will give us the time and space into which we shall withdraw to rebuild. But so also would be the Gulf Tyrannies dropped and the Zionist Doppelganger at a blow.

D.) ONLY flesh and blood citizens will be allowed to redeem treasuries or bonds from FED ...Institutional investors will be allowed to fail. The Sorros's of the world will be bankrupted, the mom's and pops will be upheld. It is not a hard principle.

E.) New bank notes would NOT be subject to speculation ... money markets will be shut down .. let the money vultures on Wall Street find an honest wage. Let them EARN their money not carpetbag other folks' time and money. These notes would be issued on a one for one basis with the old defunct FED RESERVE NOTES.

F.) This banking system would allow the nation to capitalize needed projects at all levels, such that the commons reaps the rewards, not globalist financiers in New York, London and Hong Kong. As a bonus rather than paying for Wall Streets lavish life style we COULD in theory lower taxes and have much more manageable levels of public debt.

2. The other banks, family trusts, and major creditors would all be required to accept repayment of the aprox 8 trill of the public debt/savings they hold, in long term low interest bonds from the New Banking System -- thus in effect pledging 8 trillion to the pubic good, very civic minded of them indeed -- Call it forced enrollment to the National Good with an incentive to remain loyal or lose all -- if the are good boys and girls for 30 years they will get their money plus a small stipend. Unlike them we keep our word for good and bad.

3. The current owners of the remaining heavy, light and petroleum/chem based industries would be encouraged to accept the new bank notes as payment for the long term lease/use of their capital, in return would also be given long term low rate loans to fund their operations and a lower tax rate. Thus at a blow the cosmopolitans' chamber of commerce MONEY is tied to the well being of THIS nation not the 'world'. Those 'owners' that are not living citizens will be expropriated ... no foreigners will have control over our destiny. None.

And these policies require the following seed bed conditions --

A. The Media, Academic and Commentator

Classes/Castes would need replaced with a loyal opposition that does not HATE the Ethnos and our ways. And what the Nationalist cause needs most is academics that can take the place of the commie red diaper liberals that run the show in those institutions today. We need Nationalists Journalists, Commentators and Academics who work to bring the working, middle and loyal upper class onto our side. My sense is that the current left wing witch hunter mentality will force many paloes and others onto ethnos island, making them very supportive as we simply SEIZE the media/academics assets and declare them outlaw -- IE beyond all protection of law. So be it. The 'two parties' are very much the same ... they are busy driving Whites into our grasp as we type. By a thousand little means they drive the White Man into our arms. They destroy faith in their own 'equality' 'tolerance' 'inclusion' gibberish to Ethno State's ultimate advantage with the two minutes daily hatred for WHITES, our past, culture and values.

B. Realistically any of this to work long term without massive police and political repression the Nationalist faction would need some of the Army Brass, National State and Local Police, as well as some members of the Intelligence community, on board with the world vision of an ethno state that defies liberalism/Cultural-Marxist values by being reborn like a Phoenix among the PC Liberal rubble -- they are by and large WHITE MEN with the same long term ethno interests as us 'nazis' after all -- This will mean cadres that reach out to these communities promoting our narrative and poking holes in the PC Liberal world view at turns. Also very helpful would be to have: at least a rump faction of Congress to give the changes in policy and basic political orientation, that would be put through the veneer of Tradition and Weight of Authority such as they have; and a nominal national political presence to give the 'hand over' the appearance needed to keep order; some media and academic power, from which to construct a narrative that gives the sense of continuity with our National History Cultural Values and thus legitimacy; validity even, to the end that ACCEPTANCE of the new order comes quickly and with minimal unrest. This means private organizations that teach nationalists by the scores about administering people, resources and time; that give men the fire to be chadres such that they live breath and eat nationalism. Since in the end all this massive 'dream' depends upon Nationalists ability to rule with some justice ability and a mind to the common good -- these are learned skills and arts to be mastered. Results --

Short Term -- World gets upset. EU and Anglo Sphere stay on board, central and South America, as well as the Carribean are keep. China acting as proxy to the former elite here leads WTO in fomenting a trade embargo, in which India and most of the Middle East and Africa Join. Russia tries to ride the wave and waits to see who comes out in this initial jockeying. We try to bring them in on a northern security deal -- that allows joint exploitation of the Arctic to mutual advantage.

America 2.0 can ensure ALL the Western Hemisphere remains in Monroe Doctrine Status and ensure its lines of access to Both Alaska and Hawaii -- these quick decisive actions will give unifying purpose to the new order. As a corollary Canada can be uncucked as well. Since we cannot have a cucked cannuck on the border to the North -- you can keep your weed. LOL.

Mid Term -- America does have food stocks and plenty of food reserves, couple this with the food that can be traded for from Central and South America and there need be no starvation -- in fact we could bring up the general level of the Loyal S. and C. American Whites, which would help bolster our position and ensure we can keep the Oceans Divided to our advantage both East and West. We could maintain a reduced but substantial navy based at the Panama Canal simply annexing the zone, to ensure our defensive and strategic needs were met. UK Aus NZ are brought into more firm union of friendship and liberated from PC -- White Anglo/Euro will be the Policy from this day to the end of all days. Long Game -- Our Nation Prospers, Our Cousin Nations prosper, we all have a green clean golden age behind our nuclear wall. Free from the world and its barbarian issues ... Georgia not Gaza ... London not Lebanon ... New York Not New Guinea .. And then I woke up ... have a nice day y'all.

There is no game about it.

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/gENS8Azlkyz9/> We the majority of legal lawful citizens who also happen to be WHITE Western Christians voted for #AmericaFirst #MAGA and for a return of LIVING WAGE JOBS to the USA. But what we have gotten is

De Facto Amnesty 2.0, more colored invaders, and less economic prosperity among the working poor Whites. The Tax Bill is a con -- in a few years the Corporations and Big Fat Cats will KEEP their LOW LOW TAX, but you Mr Middle Earner will be SQUEEZED to make up the difference. That is not how you Put #AmericaFirst or #MAGA. No Sir. You pay the Main Street Worker Good and Well, then the rest will work itself out. To the Notion the Courts can stop a determined president -- See Andy Jackson: Trail of Tears. That is what we voted for in '16 not for a wussy money lender that bows to the Courts and Congress. Congress is a WHORE HOUSE. They deserve no respect. As to the Wall -- Its needs BUILT; yesterday. Until EVERY SINGLE MILE OF THAT BORDER IS SECURE -- we are not secure as a nation against Terrorism or Biological Mishaps -- See: Typhus and Plague are back. Now until #BuildTheWall happens we are doomed to be invaded by the Yellow, Red, Black and Brown world. Why? Why do we pretend it is otherwise? I want White. I want to have a WHITE WESTERN CHRISTIAN NATION. If it was in my power I would use the Executive Pen to have my way. We need to survive.

Well if that is the choice -- I would rather my nuts be in a vice. Warning -- Foul Language coming up AND Free Thoughts.

For that link take this as the cut away: Anarchoorganizations and networks. I don't even know what that means!"

These Leftists are so fucking LAME and SEE THROUGH -- #Antifa commits violence and then if we fight back -- We are the haters. Again: Rather have my

The Power of History -- Fake Media is more than just LIES

The concept here is that #history is about having a narrative to fall back upon in the hard times. It is not a weakness, it is a great #strength which is why the Enemy #hates fears and tries to destroy #WhiteHistory #WhiteCulture #WhiteRights and #WhitePower -- Remember our enemy fears LOSS or THREAT TO POWER -- what they seek to destroy gives YOU the Power to Resist! #Tyrants don't tell you things that give WELL founded hope. No they work 100% on fear. On Pain. I see those but I forsee VICTORY OVER THEM. They cannot keep it up 100% of the time while we want to be free 101% more than we want life. #HOPE in #Victory! #PandaBears will give up your past for a #penny -- Keep the #Home fire burning.
